

PowerView® Automation

Gen 3

Legacy

Communication

Bluetooth® Low Energy (BLE) provides real-time, two-way communication between the shades and the system

2.4GHz Radio Frequency (RF) communication from control device to the shade

Set Up

~15 minutes for an average 10 shade project

All set up done in App

Preset Rooms and default power option available

~45 minutes for an average 10 shade project

Requires complex remote sequences and app configurations

All Scenes and Rooms must be created manually

Hardware

Gateways not needed for app use

Additional Gateways can be easily added to extend the network range

Hub required for set up and app use

Repeaters required for range extension

Firmware Updates

Always available through the App

Easily keep shades and accessories on the latest firmware

Requires the Hub

Limited, over-the-air updates